The Theory & Practice of Biblical Hermeneutics In an era of novelty and postmodernism some evangelical scholars have revisited their approach to interpreting Scripture. In some cases, these results have been less than stellar. However, this work is a breath of fresh air in honor of Dr. Elliott Johnson who has uncompromisingly put forward a God-honoring textual hermeneutic that does great justice to the Scriptures. I enthusiastically recommend this volume to anyone who seeks a greater understanding of the Bible and the important issues of biblical interpretation. Joseph M. Holden, Ph.D., President, Veritas Evangelical Seminary
