Classroom Strategies for Interactive Learning, 4th edition Doug Buehl

Educators across content areas have turned to Classroom Strategies for Interactive Learning for almost two decades. This fully updated 4th edition delivers rich, practical, research-based strategies that readers have found invaluable in the context of today's classrooms.

Buehl has written all-new chapters that focus on the instructional shifts taking place as the Common Core State Standards are implemented across the United States. These introductory chapters will help you

Understand the research base for comprehension strategies in content classrooms

Learn how to tap into students' background knowledge to enhance comprehension of complex texts and build new knowledge

Show learners how to question a text

Teach reading and thinking through a disciplinary lens

At the heart of this edition are more than 30 classroom strategies, with variations and Strategy Indexes that identify the instructional focus of each strategy, pinpoint the text frames in play as students read and learn, and correlate students' comprehension processes across the phases of strategy implementation. In addition, each strategy is cross-referenced with the Common Core's reading, writing, speaking/listening, and language standards.

The International Reading Association is the world's premier organization of literacy professionals. Our titles promote reading by providing professional development to continuously advance the quality of literacy instruction and research.

Research-based, classroom-tested, and peer-reviewed, IRA titles are among the highest quality tools that help literacy professionals do their jobs better.

Some of the many areas we publish in include:

- Comprehension
- Response To Intervention/Struggling Readers
- Early Literacy
- Adolescent Literacy
- Assessment
- Literacy Coaching
- Research And Policy
