Charles Stanley's Bible-based answers to the most difficult life questions have touched millions through his books and nationwide TV and radio broadcasts. This important collection brings together his uplifting messages of hope to people who are hurting. Winning the War Within explains God's solutions for coping with trials (which may come from God) and triumphing over temptations (which never come from God), and how to recognize the difference. How to Handle Adversity leads the reader through the shock of seemingly unexplainable pain and tragedy as Stanley shows how to transform our weakness through God's strength. The Gift of Forgiveness demonstrates the suffering caused by an inability to give or receive the peace of forgiveness, which needs to be an ongoing, practical experience in one's life.
