This children's classic was inspired by the Gospels and takes place in Israel. Fellows narrates two stories in one—the story of an embittered lame boy who lives in Capernaum and the account of the ministry and miracles of Jesus Christ. This unit contains 24 scripted, principle-based literature lesson plans and a small unit on Israel's geography that includes a reading, a blank map of modern Israel, and four biosphere coloring pages that highlight Israel's unique terrain, flora, and fauna. There is also a reading on the seven biblical feasts and one on Jerusalem, the city of the Great King. Accompanying these lesson plans are 8 coordinating arts and crafts lesson plans, 8 additional coloring pages, student graphic organizers, classroom vocabulary cards, and instructions for the culminating Festival of Pentecost.
