The Battle is the Lord's: Praise, Worship and Spiritual Warfare Bill Mills

This meditation on King Jehoshaphat and the people of Judah becomes a model for spiritual warfare. When they were threatened with overwhelming enemies, they responded in the most unconventional manner: with praise, worship and thanksgiving. When these become our strategy in the battles that confront our marriages, our families and our ministries, God displays His glory by defeating the enemies that would destroy us. 39 pages includes questions for interaction and application
