The amazing story of Akhnaton (Amenhotep IV), Pharaoh of Egypt 1360 B.C. This is not just the fascinating story of a man's life— it is far more. It raises the curtain on man's emerging from superstition and idolatry. Against the tremendous opposition of a fanatical and politically corrupt priesthood, Akhnaton brought about the world's first spiritual revolution. He was the first to declare a "sole God." In the words of Sir Flinders Petrie (History of Egypt). "Were it invented to satisfy our modern scientific conceptions, his religio-philosophy could not be logically improved upon at the present day."
