Evaluating and Rewarding the Quality of Teachers: International Practices OECD Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development

Drawing on relevant international research, including information from experts' presentations and papers given at the December 2008 Joint Conference between the OECD and the Government of Mexico, this book sets out good practice in the design and implementation of incentive systems for teachers. With this aim in mind, the book provides analysis and discussion of the design and implementation of incentive systems for teachers as well as guidance on what should be rewarded and how it should be measured, who should be rewarded, how they should be rewarded and how policies should be developed and implemented to ensure stakeholder engagement and commitment.
