When Terri Gillingham, single and in her late forties, won a two-week Caribbean cruise in a TV competition, she thought all her Christmases had come at once. There was just one problem. The prize was for a couple with two children.

Terri was determined to find a solution. In cahoots with her three closest girlfriends, all fellow air-stewardesses from the 1970's, an outrageous plot was hatched and two months later the four women were packed and en-route to St Lucia for what was to be an all-expenses paid, girls-behaving-badly, tropical voyage through the Grenadines.

Well, that's what they thought. Needless to say, their exotic holiday didn't quite go to plan . . .

If you enjoyed the antics of Shirley Valentine, you'll love this romp through the Caribbean with Terri, Sam, George and Evie.
