Complete summary of Michael Savage's book: "The Political Zoo".

This summary of the ideas from Michael Savage's book "The Political Zoo" uses the analogy of a zoo to portray the variety of political views that are currently in play in Washington. In his book, the author claims that this zoo analogy is appropriate as, much like zoo animals, Washington politicians act as though they are wild for their visitors. In reality, they have become rather accustomed to their opulent diets and comfortable cages.
