Born Hungry! This is a unique collection of poetry, by a woman who after finding out she was adopted began a search for love and acceptance. Her life was orchestrated by a mysterious God she didn't know and people who had their own agendas. While all of their impact left it's own unusual brand on her heart, only one has remained constant and true. Faced with many challenges, she confronts her personal issues while trying to fit in with a life that was never ordained for her. As the reader goes on this journey with the author they will experience an uplifting story of courage, determination, humor, and the pursuit of purpose for ones life.
