As persons, as human beings, and as spiritual beings standing before God, men and women are absolutely equal. Yet along with that equality God created some differences. He has called women to a unique role that no man can ever fill. God's design for the fulfilled woman appears in 1 Timothy 2:9-15. This passage is the most comprehensive treatment in all the New Testament of the woman's appearance, attitude, testimony, and her contribution to the Lord's work. Throughout the series God's High Calling for Women, you'll find illustrations of the unique role and influence women had in the New Testament era and still have today. Furthermore, you'll gain the Lord's perspective of womanhood—a view that allows a woman to reach her fullest potential. And when that happens, she will bring glory to God.
