Vernon Douglas is a seventeen year old student at a magic and runic high school on the planet Eden.

There has always been a part of him that believed he was destined for greatness, but doubt clouds his mind. He dreams of becoming a Paladin, a symbol for the best of the best in his society, but they don't take people like him in very often. He is a rune user, only being able to use magic by pouring his mana through an object emblazoned with a symbol. This limits what magic he can use.

His best friend comes to him with a solution, a newly made available sport called mixed magical arts.

It's a sport to test the limits of magical and physical ability. His high school is holding tryouts for the team. Getting onto the team is the key to help him prove he's worthy. To not just himself but to everyone else. His only question is are his abilities enough?

Will Vernon have what it takes to get through the tournaments?

Are his dreams of joining the Paladin's out of his reach?

Follow Vernon and find out.

Author Insight:

Q: What's so special about the Cypher Theorem Series?

A: It's a coming of age tale that blends science fiction type technology and fantasy style magic together in a way that I have always wanted to read. Vernon (the main character) thinks he knows what he wants, and tries to go for it in the best way that he knows how. Which gets him into trouble more than he would like. The story itself takes place on a far off planet after humans have long left Earth.

Q: What order should I read the books in?

A: The Zero Class, Shadow Moon, then Dragon Fire. There are more books coming, but their titles haven't been announced just yet.

Q: Why should readers give this series a shot?

A: It's an action packed ride that will keep the pages turning. There's fighting, spell casting, and some mystery thrown in for good measure. If you like Science Fiction, Fantasy or Urban Fantasy, you'll love the books and story within.

Q: Is there anything that you want readers to know?

A: Yes, you are awesome. If you are reading this, then I'm talking to you. Readers like you are why I do what I do, and writers on a whole don't thank the reader enough. So let me say, THANK YOU, and above all Happy Reading!
