Collective Coaching Wisdom for Youth Baseball (Hometown Heroes Books) David Ham

This unique book peer-mentors youth baseball coaches by capturing the "word-of-mouth" tips, advice, and ideas of some of America's extraordinary community coaching hometown heroes — everyday people who are considered by their own youth-league communities to be exceptional coaches for promoting excellence, pride, fun, excitement, and teamwork while teaching kids the mechanical aspects of baseball. This book is a "road map" for the season from 26 coaches who've been there. Coaches everywhere will benefit from this resource that is much more than just a drills book, offering the collective personality of the hometown hero coaches through their tips, advice, philosophies, and inspirational stories.
