The Greatest Gift Larry Buttram

After being diagnosed with a fatal illness, six-year-old Stephanie Renner's only wish is to be taken to the top of Mt. Everest so that she can be closer to heaven and talk to Jesus. In desperation, her parents take her to The Greatest Gift Foundation, an organization which grants sick children their last wish. Mr. Ellis, the foundation's director, has never failed to grant a child's wish, but now he is being asked to do the impossible. How will he respond to such an impossible wish?
